General Allegations

I. The Celsius Bankruptcy

9. Celsius is a crypto-based financial platform that provides financial services to institutional, corporate, and retail customers across more than 100 countries. Created in 2017, Celsius was one of the first crypto platforms that allowed customers to transfer their crypto assets and (i) earn rewards on those assets and/or (ii) take out loans using those assets as collateral. A detailed description of Celsius' business operations, capital and debt structure, and the facts and circumstances leading to the Chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of Alex Mashinsky, Chief Executive Officer of Celsius Network LLC, in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions [Docket No. 23].

10. On July 13, 2022, each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession under sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. On July 19, 2022, the Court entered an order authorizing the joint administration and procedural consolidation of the Chapter 11 cases. Order Directing (I) Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 53].

II. The Series B Agreement

12. On December 3, 2021, CNL, its existing shareholders, and four lead investors entered into an Amended and Restated Subscription and Shareholders' Agreement (the "Series B Agreement"), which is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit A.

13. The Series B Agreement created Series B preferred shares in CNL and allocated those shares to the lead investors. Id. §§ 3.1, 3.3.

14. Each lead investor expressly undertook to “pay the sum set out against its name” in the Series B Agreement, which the Agreement characterized as a payment “obligation[.]” Id. § 4.2(a).

15. At any time after the initial issuance of Series B preferred shares, the Series B Agreement permitted CNL to issue approximately 5,000 additional Series B preferred shares. Id. § 3.6(a).

16. There were three conditions on CNL’s ability to issue such additional shares to third parties. First, any such third party needed to be “approved by the Board.” Id. Second, additional shares needed to be sold at $20,469 per share. Id. And third, any such third party needed to “execut[e] and deliver[] a Deed of Adherence in the form attached [to the Series B Agreement] with any additions or amendments as the Company may determine from case to case.” Id. § 11.

III. The CNL-Fabric Negotiations

17. CNL and Fabric began discussing a potential sale of Series B preferred shares in or around March 2022. Emails reflecting the parties’ negotiations are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit B.

18. In late March, Fabric General Partner Anil Hansjee wrote to Celsius stating that, although Fabric was “happy to sign to commit” to purchase shares, Fabric was “realistically . . . 1 month away” from being able to pull together the necessary funds. Id. at 12.

19. Celsius responded that it would “accommodate [Fabric] for another week,” which would mean “clos[ing] by next Tuesday, April 12.” Id.

20. Hansjee replied that “the 12th ends up being too tight for us.” Id. at 11. Hansjee reiterated that Fabric “can of course sign” before collecting all the necessary funds. Hansjee stated that, in Fabric’s view, it “would clearly be legally committed from signature date.” Id. (emphasis added).

21. When pressed on how much Fabric could pull together by the end of April, Hansjee offered $2 million. Id. at 10. Hansjee said that Fabric “can sign and commit to 8mUSD if we had much more time . . . closer to 90 days.” Id.

22. Celsius responded by offering Fabric a “commitment with delayed funding.” Id. at 9–10. Celsius emphasized, however, that it would “need[] to obviously be a hard commitment as we are allocating it to you.” Id.

23. Hansjee confirmed that “what ever [sic] we sign for we are making a HARD commitment for as professionals in this industry. So if we sign for 8m now , [sic] even if you were to allow a delayed funding, we would be good for this 8m. I just want to make sure there is no misunderstanding here and we dont [sic] treat it as an option.” Id. at 9 (emphasis added).

24. Celsius responded by proposing “one document” with “3 funding dates”—“$2m after 30 days, another $2m no later than 60 days from signing and the final $4m . . . no later than 90.” Id. at 8.

25. Hansjee replied, “[t]hat construct works for us.” Id.

26. On or about April 12, 2022, Celsius said that it would “follow up with an amended subscription letter that reflects the agreed upon construct.” Id. at 7.

IV. The CNL-Fabric Agreement

27. On or about April 12, 2022, CNL sent Fabric a Subscription Letter consistent with the parties’ prior negotiations. Id. The signed version of that Subscription Letter is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit C.

28. The Subscription Letter states that Fabric “irrevocably applies to subscribe for 391 Preferred B Shares” of CNL “for cash at a price of $20,469 per share.”

29. The Subscription Letter also contains the following paragraph:

The Subscriber hereby undertakes to pay the Company the sum of $2,000,000 on or before 10 May 2022, $2,000,000 on or before June 10, 2022, and $4,003,379 on or before July 10, 2022 for a total of $8,003,379 in respect of such application by electronic funds transfer to the Company’s bank account and payment made in accordance with this paragraph shall constitute a good discharge for the Subscriber’s obligations under this paragraph.

30. On or about April 14, 2022, Fabric Director Richard Muirhead signed the Subscription Letter.

31. Shortly thereafter, CNL sent Fabric a Deed of Adherence as required by the Series B Agreement. The signed version of that Deed of Adherence is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit D.

32. The Deed of Adherence states that, “[b]y a subscription for shares dated 14 April 2022, [Fabric] subscribed for 391 Preferred B shares” of CNL. Id. Intro. ¶ (A).

33. The Deed of Adherence also states that Fabric “hereby agrees to assume the benefit of the rights under the [Series B] Agreement in respect of the Subscribed Shares and hereby agrees to assume and assumes the burden of the obligations under the Agreement to be performed after the date hereof in respect of the Subscribed Shares.” Id. § 2.

34. The Deed of Adherence further states that Fabric “hereby agrees to be bound by the [Series B] Agreement in all respects as if [Fabric] were a party to the Agreement as one of the Participating Investors and to . . . perform all the obligations expressed to be imposed on such a party to the Agreement.” Id. § 3.

35. To reiterate, in the Series B Agreement, each investor expressly undertook to “pay the sum set out against its name,” which the Agreement characterized as a payment “obligation[.]”

Exhibit A § 4.2(a).

36. On or about May 15, 2022, Fabric Director Richard Muirhead signed the Deed of Adherence.

37. Together, the Subscription Letter and Deed of Adherence form an enforceable agreement between CNL and Fabric.

38. That agreement comports with the three conditions on the issuance of Series B preferred shares imposed by the Series B Agreement: the CNL Board approved Fabric as a shareholder; the shares were sold for $20,469 per share; and Fabric signed a Deed of Adherence.

V. Fabric’s Post-Agreement Conduct

39. On or about May 10, 2022, Fabric made the first scheduled payment of $2,000,000.

40. On or about June 6, 2022, approximately four days before the second scheduled payment was due, Hansjee asked to “delay the payment by a few weeks.” Exhibit E at 7. Hansjee told Celsius that there had been a “delay in our paper work and kyc for onboarding our LPs to our new growth fund.” Id.

41. Celsius agreed to “provide an additional week for the payment but note[d] that the final $4M tranche will remain due on the originally scheduled date”—that is, July 10, 2022. Id. at 6.

42. Fabric never made the second or third scheduled payments.

43. Instead, on or about July 8, 2022, approximately two days before the third scheduled payment was due, Fabric emailed Celsius purporting to revoke its “previous offer of investment.” Id. at 2 (emphasis added). Fabric requested the return of its initial $2,000,000 payment, which Fabric characterized as an “initial advance . . . which was sent pending closure of our fundraising and allotment of equity.” Id.

44. Fabric’s assertion that it had only ever made a revocable “offer of investment” is inconsistent with the plain terms of the Subscription Letter—which states that Fabric “irrevocably applies” to buy shares from Celsius and “undertakes” the “obligation[.]” to make a series of payments for those shares. Exhibit C.

45. Fabric’s assertion that it had only ever made an offer of investment is also inconsistent with the plain terms of the Deed of Adherence—which states that Fabric “hereby agrees to assume and assumes the burden of the obligations under the [Series B] Agreement,” Exhibit D § 2, one of which is to “pay the sum set out against its name,” Exhibit A § 4.2(a).

46. Finally, Fabric’s assertion that it had only ever made an offer of investment is inconsistent with Fabric’s statements during the parties’ negotiations. During negotiations, Hansjee stated that, if Celsius agreed to a delayed funding schedule, Fabric would nevertheless “clearly be legally committed from signature date.” Exhibit B at 11. Hansjee also told Celsius: “what ever [sic] we sign for we are making a HARD commitment for as professionals in this industry. So if we sign for 8m now , [sic] even if you were to allow a delayed funding, we would be good for this 8m. I just want to make sure there is no misunderstanding here and we dont [sic] treat it as an option.” Id. at 9.

Count I: Breach of Contract

47. Debtors repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1–46 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

48. There is a valid and enforceable contract between CNL and Fabric, under which CNL was obligated to issue Series B Preferred Shares to Fabric, and Fabric was obligated to make a series of three payments to CNL.

49. CNL tendered performance in that it stood ready to issue Series B Preferred Shares to Fabric upon Fabric's satisfaction of its payment obligation.

50. Fabric breached the contract by refusing to make the final two scheduled payments.

51. CNL was damaged by Fabric's refusal to make those payments, which would have totaled $6,003,379.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, CNL as Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant and respectfully requests relief as follows:

- i. compensatory damages of $6,003,379;
- ii. punitive damages;
- iii. pre-judgment interest, attorney fees, costs, and post-judgment interest;
- iv. such other relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

transfer their Shares and assign their interests and rights in this Agreement to Permitted Transferees (as defined in the Articles) and otherwise in compliance with any transfer related obligations set forth in the Articles and this Agreement.

20. Entire agreement

20.1 This Agreement (together with the documents referred to in it and the Exhibits attached hereto) constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and extinguish all previous discussions, correspondence, negotiations, drafts, agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations, arrangements and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to their subject matter.

20.2 Each party acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement (and any documents referred to in it), it does not rely on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Agreement or those documents.

21.3 A failure or delay by any person to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

21.4 A person that waives a right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law in relation to one person, or takes or fails to take any action against that person, does not affect its rights or remedies in relation to any other person.

22. Costs

22.1 Each party shall pay its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement (and any documents referred to in it). In no event shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any Taxes, including withholding tax, incurred in connection with any transaction contemplated by this Agreement (or any documents referred to in it).

- (b) the date five Business Days after deemed receipt of the notice.

24.4 This clause 24.4 sets out the delivery methods for sending a notice to a party under this Agreement and, for each delivery method, the date and time when the notice is deemed to have been received (provided that all other requirements of this clause have been satisfied and subject to the provisions in clause 24.5):

For the purposes of this clause, Usual Business Hours means 9.00 am to 5.30 pm local time on any day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in the place of receipt of the notice (which, in the case of service of a notice by or email shall be deemed to be the same place as is specified for service of notices on the relevant party by hand or post).

24.6 This clause 24 does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution.

24.7 A notice given under or in connection with this Agreement is not valid if sent by fax.

25. Severance

25.1 If any provision or part-provision of this Agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed deleted, but that shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of this Agreement.

25.2 If any provision or part-provision of this Agreement is deemed deleted, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree a replacement provision that, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the intended commercial result of the original provision.

26. Agreement survives the Completions

28. Counterparts

28.1 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall constitute a duplicate original, but all the counterparts shall together constitute the one agreement.

28.2 No counterpart shall be effective until each party has executed and delivered at least one counterpart.

29. Rights and remedies

29.1 The rights and remedies provided under this Agreement are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies provided by law.

30. Inadequacy of damages

30.1 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that a party may have, each party acknowledges and agrees that damages alone may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the terms of this Agreement. Accordingly, the parties shall be entitled to seek the remedies of injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief for any threatened or actual breach of the terms of this Agreement.

31. Governing law and jurisdiction

31.1 This Agreement and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

- (i) it understands that the information provided herein will be relied upon by the Company for the purpose of determining its eligibility to purchase Shares. It agrees to provide, if requested, any additional information that may reasonably be required to determine its eligibility to purchase Shares;

- (j) it hereby acknowledges that the Company would be unable to rely on the exemption from the registration requirements under the U.S. Securities Act provided by Rule 506(c) of Regulation D under the U.S. Securities Act (the “Exemption”) if any person that beneficially owns 20% or more of the Company’s outstanding voting equity securities or any promotor for the Company has experienced a “Bad Actor” disqualification event (each such event, a “Disqualifying Event”), as listed in Rule 506(d)(1) of Regulation D under the U.S. Securities Act; and
- (k) neither it nor any of its directors, general partners, managing members, executive officers nor any other person affiliated with it, whose experience of a Disqualifying Event may prevent the Company from relying on the Exemption with respect to the offer and sale of the Shares, has experienced a Disqualifying Event.

I think we could do it all in one document. It will simply have 3 funding dates. $2m after 30 days, another $2m no later than 60 days from signing and the final $4m rest no later than 90.

We are confirming internally but would that construct work for you?

Ron . Firstly thanks for your understanding. Highly appreciated. Second what ever we sign for we are making a HARD commitment for as professionals in this industry. So if we sign for 8m now , even if you were to allow a delayed funding, we would be good for this 8m. I just want to make sure there is no misunderstanding here and we dont treat it as an option. As such, if you were to see fit to enable a phased funding of the 8m we would love to stick to that and sign but if you are saying lets only sign for 2m now and then revisit the remaining later, I understand your position. Please let me know your thoughts here. Regardless we are happy to sign for 2mUSD now for a delayed 30day funding. Would this be 30 days extra from 12 April your closing date or 30 days from today 7 April (just to clarify). Naturally the former is better for us :-). In terms of moving forward, I believe we are just missing the document from an accountant or lawyer that we are an accredited investment firm for your onboarding. We have requested such letter.

Please let us know and we can document it accordingly.

Sorry for the delay. Basically we can sign and commit to 8mUSD if we had much more time as this will enable us to onboard and draw down from these LPs for our new fund. Its hard to estimate but I would definitely say closer to 90 days. If we are talking about a shorter extension to fund , say 60 days, we would estimate some of these funds would be drawn down in this time frame, and could sign and commit for 4m USD safely. If it's 30days as Sarah indicated, then to be safe I would err at 2m USD. I'm really grateful for the ability to delay funding.

Hi Sarah. Thanks for the update and offer. We can of course sign but do you have flexibility on the funding date so that we can collect funds from our LPs . Ideally this would be a further month or more given kyc time. It would be most appreciated and we would clearly be legally committed from signature date. I'm afraid the 12th ends up being too tight for us. We were not really away of timelines properly and have done all the DD and kyc work between us and believe there is much to offer as a focused web3 fund and in Europe out of proportion to our cheque size.

Thanks Ron. Probably not tbh for the amount we had in mind at least. We are now just starting our outreach to these LPs who signalled interest before in order to plug the gap from Patrick pulling out. Based on the last time around, we spent a long time with each of them going through the investment thesis and then they had their own investment process (that's the trouble with warehousing investments vs drawing down from a fund - our growth fund is not yet closed). I suspect realistically we are 1 month away from back filling the gap we thought we had from Patrick. As mentioned, we are happy to sign to commit but looking to see what the maximum time period you can accommodate in terms of a delay to funding and then I can assess what we can realistically do $ amount wise in that time frame and sign up for that.

Unfortunately we had a disappointing discussion with Patrick . We were under the impression that he was bringing capital to the Fabric syndicate but he has decided to do his own SPV, which is his right. We have other LP interest to back fill this amount from Patrick but will need to kick this off with them. Ultimately the question to you is if we are happy to sign documents what would be the maximum time you would be able to give us to fund so that we can properly draw this down from our LPs?

Thanks Sarah. Yes i know we have everything on our side (except the W8) so we are waiting for this before uploading because your system only will accept the full pack at once vs bit by bit. We are on it however. We had to apply for a US tax reference in order to fill in the W8 unfortunately.

On your side , i have just downloaded the KYC pack - thanks for that. Would LT be able to send proof of address as well (3 months max)? His global entry doc does not have an address on it.

I also saw your question on $ investment amount by separate email, I will respond monday more definitely because im meeting Patrick Martin on monday to find out how much he wants to take himself. I think he was after something like 6m-8m for his own (unclear if he is investing directly or via fabric), so if we at fabric also wanted another 8m from our fund then the question would be if there was scope for both of us at 8m ie 16m total?

Hi Michael,

Naturally, Fabric is aware of the serious and widely-reported difficulties currently faced by Celsius. In these circumstances, regrettably we are not in a position to proceed with our previous offer of investment. Please can you therefore return the initial advance of 2m USDC sent on 10th May 2022, which was sent pending closure of our fundraising and allotment of equity.

We would also note significant concern that your commitment on 10th May 2022 to keep our USDC in your "segregated investment accounts" i.e. your "client investment vault", until we are closed has not been honoured.

The chain data shows that within 24 hrs of confirming receipt of our funds, these were then moved onto "Celsius Network: Wallet 5" (0x4f6742bADB049791CD9A37ea913f2BAC38d01279), an on-chain wallet controlled by Celsius with high volumes of transaction (several hundred thousand transactions), presumably a 'hot wallet' of Celsius and not a segregated investment account.

We note that the USDC balance on this Wallet ("Celsius Network: Wallet 5") is now only 31,367.734793 ; so the funds have been moved again.

We deem this to be a serious breach of the commitment to hold the funds effectively in escrow and would ask that it is rectified by return of our 2m USDC forthwith to our wallet: 0x7f1B6c8aE84157487A1aeaaBd2F2660C74A07EC7

Kind regards,
Julien

Thanks guys. Our follow up questions are

What are the current short term assets (cash and cash equivalents) vs equivalent liabilities?
what are current withdrawals and what sort of withdrawal level will lead to a liquidity crisis?
What are the current ETH short term assets and liabilities (i.e. stETH vs ETH assets)
At what point of ETH withdrawals do Celsius need to liquidate stETH positions?

Hey Anil,

Happy to set up a call for tomorrow or Thursday to provide some color on the items you've alluded to. Please let us know when you are available to discuss and I'll schedule the call accordingly.

We can provide an additional week for the payment but note that the final $4M tranche will remain due on the originally scheduled date.

Thanks,

Michael and Ron how are you? Tough times i know!!

I would like to ask for some investor reporting to be sent out way. Especially in times like this it's critical to share some insights so we don't get hung up on social media news which has been overwhelmingly negative to Celsius, unfortunately.

We have our investor LP meetings early next week and I will be expected to be able to comment at a high level in our portfolio companies and I'm afraid I have no real insights on key matters such Celsius wrt market impact to $ inflows and AUM, expected rev and user and AUM growth for the year, timing of the IPO of the mining business in this current market, the CEL token collapse and the UST story. It would be useful for me to also know what elements are for my ears only under NDA Vs shareable to our LPs under our own NDA with them.

On our payment schedule - we have our next $2m due end of this week. I would like to ask if we can delay this to accommodate a slight delay in our paper work and kyc for onboarding our LPs to our new growth fund. Given market dynamics we have also had some further shuffling to do our end but are now gearing up for formalities. Your assistance would be appreciate if we can delay the payment by a few weeks to be sure we can finalise matters. On this point, can i ask you to reconfirm both the USDC wallet address and the fiat bank account details - we are not yet sure which we will use.
